The Western Canadian Shoe Association is an association of travellers and agents who work in the footwear and related industries. The association's primary goal is to present buying markets to retailers in Western Canada. The association's executive & board promotes, organizes and co-ordinates these valuable markets. Any member of the association or current member of an affiliate may participate in these markets by simply registering with our exhibit contract. Retailers are welcome at no charge.

Simply fill in your information in the space provided below and forward as soon as possible with the proper payment by email or fax.
